Unknown Word

Work on deciphering and translating the remaining lines of the letter is continuing.
The meaning of one word in particular, Mr. Naveh said, presents an interesting problem since it occurs neither in the Bible nor in any other Hebrew document so far discevered.

L'un the heritage of the human race, just as every man, without distinction of race, religion or birthplace, is equal in rights and duties, and of equal worth. The relations of men and of peoples must, therefore, be set firm upon the equality of rights and duties.

But equality of rights and duties.

But equality between men, which lies at the foundation of our political and social econsciousness, stands in no tentradiction to our wonderment at the greatness of Descartes, Newton, Da Vinci, Rembrandt, Electhoven and Einstein.
